316 Reading Teacher Licensure

WWW.CESA9.ORG

PART ONE

COURSEWORK

- The coursework is grounded in the science behind how children learn to read. The research-informed content and practices embedded within the program will expand the teachers' knowledge-base and further prepare them to meet a wide range of literacy needs.
- 6 courses total, approximately 8 weeks per course. See course descriptions on the back panel.
- Courses incorporate a variety of deep learning activities, readings, and videos informed by cognitive and developmental psychology, neuroscience, linguistics, and education research in the area of evidence-aligned reading instruction.
- Courses are taught by licensed reading teachers and or reading specialists.
- The course format is a mix of virtual/live and asynchronous learning.
- Courses are not transferable to other institutions of higher education.

PART TWO

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

- 10-week clinical experience.
- Designed to allow students to apply the knowledge and concepts learned throughout the program with special attention given to course 6: Structured Literacy.
- Coaching and feedback will be provided from specially trained ETP advisors and course instructors.
- During the clinical program participants will have experience teaching within the gradebands of PK-2, 3-5, and 6-12 and will be assigned a school-based supervisor.
- Performance in the clinical program is assessed through observations aligned to the 316 coaching rubric and the 316 reading assessment rubrics for PK-3 and 4-12.

PART THREE

CAPSTONE PORTFOLIO

- Participants must successfully complete the capstone portfolio aligned to the Portfolio Completion Rubric, and informed by the Knowledge and Practice Standards and the WI Content Guidelines for Reading Teachers.
- Participants will:
  - Use data to design and teach 3 consecutive, comprehensive literacy lessons for each grade band (PK-3) (4-12) following the structured literacy guidelines set forth in the course work.
  - Document when and how the lessons were altered to meet the literacy needs and learning targets of the students.
  - Record sample videos documenting explicit instruction in PA, phonics, fluency, vocabulary and comprehension as differentiated by the needs of the students/grade band.
  - Complete a successful exit interview.
