

Supporting the Journey of English Learners After Trauma

November 29, 2021

1:00 - 3:00 PM CT (Online Via Zoom)

Facilitator: Judith B. O'Loughlin

Judith B. O'Loughlin is the author of three books and chapters in several other edited volumes focusing on the needs of and strategies for working with newcomers and students with interrupted education. Her latest publication: Supporting the Journey of English Learners after Trauma is a practical resource to help educators understand the possible traumatic backgrounds of their students and how that could be affecting their academic, social, and emotional lives.

This webinar will focus on three chapters from her book:

- Defining trauma in immigrant youth
- It's impact on their learning both academic and SEL
- Strategies to help learners move beyond trauma

Ms. O'Loughlin has been a frequent presenter at TESOL, NABE, CABE, NJTESOL, CATESOL. She has served in leadership roles for both TESOL and CATESOL advocating for the learner and working with general education educators to help them learn how to support the EL specialist and the students they serve.
