

Equity 101 for Teams:

How to Create Spaces Where All Belong

JANUARY 21, 2022 & MAY 26, 2022 (Virtual)
9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Facilitators: Kim Walters | Director
Demetri Beekman | Consultant

The goal of Equity 101 is to gain a deeper understanding of equity and cultural competence while allowing teams to work collaboratively to create action steps for their schools and districts so that all students feel a greater sense of belonging.

OBJECTIVES

- Take and receive results from the Intercultural Development Inventory, which measures cultural competency
- Receive a customized plan how to increase their cultural competence;
- Gain a common understanding of vocabulary: diversity, equity, inclusion, belonging;
- Be provided team time to create/edit their mission, vision, and core values;
- Analyze school-wide data (academic, behavior, demographics);
- Plan how to communicate with the school board and community stakeholders about equity work and its importance;
- Develop timelines, staff meetings and professional learning opportunities for the district/school.
