EL DATA SERIES

2022 - 2023

SEPT 28 | OCT 11 | NOV 10 | DEC 13

3:30 PM - 4:30 PM (VIRTUAL via ZOOM)

Facilitators

Mary Ann Hudziak | Student Success Center, Director

Lori Menning | EL, Bilingual-Bicultural & World Language
Consultant

English learner data comes from different sources and can be helpful as educators plan instruction and review programming. This session is designed to determine which data is most helpful for measuring English language proficiency progress and growth. We will practice accessing and analyzing this data. School and district EL educators will gain a better understanding of using data as a tool to inform the effectiveness of programming and identify potential areas of growth.

TOPICS INCLUDE:

1. Goal Setting Using Individual Learning Plans
2. Using Can Do Descriptors to Guide Instruction and Supports
3. Navigating EL Data Dashboards
4. Midyear Review of Goals

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

EL coordinators, teachers and other school leaders responsible for school improvement planning and English learner growth.

OBJECTIVES

- Identify data sources to inform EL growth and progress
- Learn and practice accessing data for analysis
- Increase understanding of key EL data elements and how they connect to programming and instruction
