

CESA 8 CIA Department Presents:

2022-2023 NEW Teacher Support Seminars

https://login.myquickreg.com/register/agency/event/event_update.cfm?eventid=30067

PI 34 requires that districts provide ongoing orientation to beginning teachers. To assist districts with meeting this requirement, CESA 8 is proud to host this 4-part series.

The content and sequence of the sessions will focus on how to plan and navigate the 2022-23 school year as a new teacher and corresponds with milestone events within the school year and related professional practice components and standards.

Cost for the 4-part series: $100 for CIA Member School Districts

Registration: myquickreg.com

Curriculum Instruction
Assessment Department

1

Establishing Communication Practices & Relationships that Engage

September 21, 2022- 4:00-6:00

This seminar will focus on strategies to develop relationships with students, families and colleagues and connect to the “whys” that create an effective classroom.

Developing a Well Managed Classroom

October 12 2022 - 4:00-6:00

This seminar will focus on developing key strategies & practices that create and support a well managed classroom.

2

Building Effective Instructional and Strategic Assessment Practices

November 16, 2022 - 4:00-6:00

This seminar will focus on strategies to implement effective instructional strategies, explore methods of providing high value feedback and the use of student assessment data to inform instruction.

3

4

Reflecting on Educator Practices

February 1, 2023- 4:00-6:00

This seminar will focus on self assessing your adult practices to improve the way you work and demonstrate growth.

CESA 8