

● Transitioning to Multisyllabic Words

with Wiley Blevins

Part 1 - February 8, 2023

8:30-11:30 AM or 12:30-3:30 PM

and

Part 2 - February 21, 2023

8:30-11:30 AM or 12:30-3:30 PM

In collaboration with CESAs 7, 8, and 9, we are pleased to announce that Wiley Blevins will be back with a Multisyllabic Words class in January.

In this virtual workshop, participants will learn:

- how to help students access multisyllabic words through a Reading Multisyllabic Words strategy, attention to syllable types, and the teaching of high-frequency syllables
- how word study in the intermediate grades combines decoding, spelling, and morphology work to build vocabulary and deeper awareness of how English words work

The needs of students below grade-level expectations will also be addressed.

Audience: Intermediate teachers, reading interventionists, literacy coaches, reading specialists, special education teachers, middle school intervention teachers

Location: Virtual via Zoom

Registration:

This class is being offered in 2 half-day sessions. You must register for one half-day session each day. You will be given options when registering.

*The first 25 registrants from each CESA will receive a copy of Wiley Blevins' book Teaching Phonics & Word Study in the Intermediate Grades.*
