Course Description:

This course is designed for educators interested in the effective reading and writing instruction of English Language Learners. The course will be taught using an interactive, hands-on approach and will tie the reality of schools with the findings of current research on effective practices. The course has three overarching goals:

- Develop an understanding of how English language learners learn to read and write in English
- Comprehend key components that form the basis of an effective literacy (reading, writing, listening & speaking) program
- Apply a variety of instructional strategies to your classroom.

Audience:

ELL Teachers and Coordinators, General Education Teachers, Reading Specialists and Literacy Coaches

Price: (materials provided)

$125.00 (Title III Consortium Members)
$200.00 (Non-members)
