Title I Coordinator Support Series

2023 - 24

NOV 9 | JAN 17 | MAR 19

9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

PRESENTER

Mary Ann Hudziak

Director | Student Success Center

Is your Title I program effective? How do you know? Join us for a new series, designed for new and experienced Title I coordinators who seek multiple opportunities across the year to break down Title I effectiveness and explore opportunities for improvement. Each session will provide relevant and just-in-time support related to Title I, such as: private school services, family engagement, data collection and use, reporting requirements, Title I programming, and school improvement strategies. Each session will have a featured focus aligned with the time of year and participant needs. This series will provide an invaluable opportunity to network with other Title I receiving schools.

OBJECTIVES

- Learn the multitude of Title I coordinator responsibilities in digestible pieces
- Explore best practices in family engagement strategies
- Review and analyze data, specifically related to local programming and student achievement
- Share effective strategies for improvement
- Discuss strategies for effective schoolwide or targeted programs

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Title I Coordinators or other school and district personnel with the responsibility of Title programming, and instruction (i.e. Title I Coordinator, Principal, Superintendent, lead Title I teacher, Reading Specialist, RtI Coordinator)
