

School Psych Seminar

Friday, January 20th
8:30 Registration
9:00-2:30 pm Seminar

School Psychologists and other interested school staff are invited to a psychology update with Kathryn Bush, DPI School Psychologist. This will be a fast-paced lecture with slides, handouts, discussion, and activities. Please encourage school psychologists to attend-in a rapidly changing field, professional development is key.

This presentation will build the school psychologists' capacity to fill the role of "data analyst" in the RtI process and to support district and building leaders in effecting school change.

Topics to be covered:

- Statistical data requirements (e.g. SEM and least squares regression) in the new SLD rule
- School Psychologists and administrators will learn how to grow their school's capacity for school wide RtI and the new SLD rule

Registration deadline:

January 19, 2012
or until workshop is full!

COST:

$25 per person or FREE to Flagship Schools!
(includes lunch)

Held at:

CESA #4,
923 East Garland Street
