

Learning, Language, and Literacy Integrated Framework for Teaching (L3IFT)

CESA #4 will be hosting multiple dates of Learning, Language, and Literacy Integrated Framework for Teaching (L3IFT) workshops. These workshops will be focused on coaching best practices correlated to SIOP Features and Integrating the English Language Development Standards.

- Session 0: Overview of components of L3IFT, Understanding the Mode Continuum, Understanding the Teaching and Learning Cycle on September 25 -OR- October 26, 2023
 - This session is a prerequisite session for the series
 - Knowledge participants will gain: Overview of the 6 components of L3IFT, understanding of the Mode Continuum, understanding the Teaching and Learning Cycle - particularly the deconstruction and joint construction phases, deconstructing a unit exemplar with the 5-step process.
 - Register HERE for Session 0 on September 25 -or- Register HERE for Session 0 on October 26
- Session 1: Review/View of WIDA ELD Standards and Teaching Informational Writing Through Genres in the Content Areas on September 26 -OR- October 27, 2023
 - This session is a prerequisite session for the series.
 - Knowledge participants will gain: Disciplinary genres - teaching writing through informational genres in each content area. Procedures, informational genres in ELA, Science, Social Studies, creating genre-specific rubrics.
 - Apply your learning within a unit of study.
 - Register HERE for Session 1 on September 26 -or- Register HERE for Session 1 on October 27
- Session 2: Teaching Explanation Writing Through Genres in the Content Areas on November 14, 2023
 - Knowledge participants will gain: Disciplinary genres - teaching writing through genres in each content area (Using Brisk and WIDA). Includes explanations in Science, Social Studies, Math, and creating genre-specific rubrics.
 - Apply your learning within a unit of study.
 - Register HERE for Session 2
- Session 3: Teaching Argument Writing Through Genres in the Content Areas on February 21, 2024
 - Knowledge participants will gain: Disciplinary genres - teaching writing through genres in each content area (Using Brisk and WIDA). Includes arguments in Science, Social Studies, Math, ELA, examples for Health and Physical Education, and creating genre-specific rubrics.
 - Apply your learning within a unit of study.
 - Register HERE for Session 3
- Session 5: Building Teacher Knowledge about Language on March 12, 2024
 - Knowledge participants will gain: Language resources - cohesion in texts (i.e. using theme and rheme), expanding noun groups, cohesion in different genres.
 - Apply your learning within a unit of study.
 - Register HERE for Session 5

This workshop is FREE for Title III Consortium members.
Non-members districts are $180.00 per person, or $600.00 for the series.

Title III Consortium Districts 2022-2023: AC-H-M, Bangor, Blair-Taylor, Cashton, C-FC, G-E-T, Hillsboro, La Farge, Melrose-Mindoro, N-O-W, Royall, Tomah, Viroqua, West Salem, Westby, Whitehall, Wonevot

Gretchen Lettau joined CESA #2 as a consultant in the Language and Culture Center of Excellence supporting the areas of Language Acquisition, English Learners, and Dual Language Education. Throughout her career, Gretchen has collaborated with school districts in the areas of best practices, EL Co-teaching methods, academic language development, literacy and language practices when implementing workshop models, program reviews, and professional learning.

Questions about Content?

Contact:

Aurora Gonzalez at agonzalez@cesa4.org

Laura Veglahn at lveglahn@cesa4.org

Questions about Registration?

Contact:

JoAnn Martin at jmartine@cesa4.org

