

Youth Empowerment

In Your Comprehensive School Mental Health System

April 15 | 8:30 - 11:30 AM | Virtual & CESA 6 Office* (2300 State Rd 44, Oshkosh)

*space and event facilitation is offered at the CESA 6 Conference Center for those who prefer to engage in learning off-campus

Facilitated by:

- Emily Torres, Program Manager, University of Michigan Prevention Research Collaborative
- CESA 6 Social Emotional Learning Team
- National Center for School Safety
- Youth Panel: Stevens Point Area School District

“Nothing about us without us.” As school teams seek to develop and strengthen mental health support for youth, it is critical to elevate the voices of those for whom the systems are built: our students. Together, we will ground ourselves in the importance of and the principles involved in elevating youth voice, including examining where “adultism” shows up in our systems.

Hear directly from the students we serve as a panel of youth join us to share their perspectives and experiences; and explore methods and tools for gathering and using authentic youth voice to cultivate safe and connected school environments.

Benefits

- Understand youth empowerment and its connection to safety & belonging
- Identify barriers and pitfalls that lessen youth voices
- Hear from students how we can empower youth
- Examine tools and methods to advance your work

920-236-0510
solutions@cesa6.org
bit.ly/2024YouthEmpowerment

Develop and strengthen mental health support for Youth. Register today!