

LEA Responsibilities for Non-Special Education Personnel

Presented by:
Mary S. Gerbig
Law firm of Davis & Kuelthau

Mary serves as counsel to numerous school districts throughout Wisconsin on general school law, special education, and labor and employment matters. She provides counsel to private and public sector employers on labor and employment matters such as contract negotiations, grievance procedures, hiring/terminating employees, family and medical leave laws, Americans with Disabilities Act, harassment and employment discrimination.

The primary client base she serves includes school districts, counties and other municipal employers. In addition, Mary provides counsel to private employers related to state and federal discrimination laws, family medical leave, and numerous employment/human resource issues. She has extensive experience with Wisconsin school districts and the correlating regulatory agencies.

If you are a guidance counselor, social worker, dean of students, principal or administrator serving as a LEA on an IEP team, you should attend this training! You will learn:

- ⇒ The legal requirements of the role of LEA
- ⇒ Your responsibilities before, during and after the IEP meeting

All of your questions will be answered !!!
