FACILITATORS

Kim Walters | Director | Center 4All

Laurice Snyder | Consultant | Center 4All

The Center 4All Learning Collaborative Series focuses on the areas of diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging. Participants will gain a deeper understanding of the necessary components necessary to create inclusive learning and working environments which include awareness, allyship, advocacy and agency. Through a variety of professional learning opportunities that are engaging, interactive and non-threatening, participants will leave with ideas and strategies that can deepen further conversations and action.

OBJECTIVES

- Specific focus/topic each month
- Co-Create agendas with other educators who are applying DEIB in their school or district
- Engage in DEIB Hot Topic discussions in a supportive environment with educators across the region
- Participate in facilitated book study experience- specific book to be determined by participants
- Network, resource share, and gain valuable information for upcoming events and trainings

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This learning collaborative supports any PK-12 educator who would like to develop their capacity for creating inclusive educational environments.
