

Buff Nuggets for CESA 9: Empowerment, EdTech, and AI

Special guest and Georgia goofball Brian Buffington will be making a trek to the cheese state to serve up a healthy portion of “Buff Nuggets”...tasty, digestible, and relevant PD! Brian specializes in empowering learners and leaders in the areas of EdTech and Creative “Climate-Control”, all while delivering content in his unique and entertaining way.

You'll get hands-on experience with A.I. in Schools, Crank That Climate, and Buff Nuggets Mania!

Directors of C & I, technology coaches, Classroom educators, school teams, and innovative thinkers are invited to take part in this empowering and captivating professional learning experience!
