

CESA₆

Deep Dive Series

Reimagining Small Group Instruction and Independent Reading

Grades 3-5

2024 - 2025 DATES

SEP 25 | NOV 6 | FEB 6

TIME: 8:30 AM - 3:00 PM

FACILITATORS

Lindsay Johnson | Literacy Consultant

Lori Zembrowski | Literacy Consultant

Increase student achievement by taking a deep dive with us into the knowledge and tools needed to support science-aligned, differentiated instruction in reading through small group instruction and independent reading practices.

OBJECTIVES

- Grow knowledge and understanding of small group, science-aligned, differentiated instruction
- Explore shifts in independent reading practices
- Build knowledge and understanding of high impact student assessment and data practices
- Learn and implement high leverage instructional strategies
- Build capacity for practice change in literacy instruction
- Receive support in planning and scheduling small group instruction and independent reading
- Leave each session with a new idea or strategy to implement immediately in your classroom.

PREREQUISITES

- Attended the CESA 6 Intermediate Literacy Leadership Academy
OR
- Attended the January 16, 2024 workshop presented by Jan Burkins and Kari Yates, Shifting the Balance 3-5, 6 Ways to Bring the Science of Reading into the Upper Elementary Classroom
OR
- Have read and have background knowledge from at least one or more of the following:
 - Shifting the Balance 3-5: 6 Ways to Bring the Science of Reading into the Upper Elementary Classroom (Cunningham, Burkins, and Yates)
 - The Reading Comprehension Blueprint: Helping Students Make Meaning from Text (Nancy Lewis Hennessy)
 - Teaching Reading: A Playbook for Developing Skilled Readers Through Word Recognition and Language Comprehension (Fisher, Frey, and Lapp)

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Classroom Teachers in grades 3-5
- Literacy or Instructional Coaches

DETAILS

Register ONLINE
by Sep. 18, 2024:

www.cesa6.org/events

- $600 per person*

* For every 3 teachers registered from the same school, one (1) administrator seat free

* For every 3 coaches registered from the same district, one (1) administrator seat free

LOCATION

CESA 6 Conference Center
2300 State Road 44, Oshkosh

QUESTIONS?

Amy Ruppert | Program Assistant
(920) 236-0562 | aruppert@cesa6.org