

Analyzing the Accountability Report Card

2024
November 20, 2024
9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Facilitator:
Mary Ann Hudziak
Co-Director | Learning and Assessment

WISEdash for Districts is a valuable tool for investigating school or district data on academic achievement, progress, and engagement. This session will focus on the dashboards that contribute to the state accountability report card. School and district leaders will have the opportunity to analyze current measures and compare them to previous years using 'WISEdash for Districts' and 'WISEdash Public'. We will build participants' data literacy and consider data quality and validation practices. 'Be WISE' and register today!

Outcomes

- Gain a thorough understanding of the key metrics and indicators used in the state accountability report card.
- Draw meaningful insights and make informed decisions as a result of enhanced data literacy skills using WISEdash for Districts.
- Learn best practices for ensuring data quality, leading to more accurate and reliable data reporting.

Who Should Attend?

- District and school administrators, specialists, curriculum/data coordinators, special education directors, EL coordinators, school counselors, and lead teachers.
