

Excel in Title I Management

2024-2025

NOV 6 | JAN 23 | MAR 19

9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Facilitator:

Mary Ann Hudziak

Co-Director | Learning & Assessment

Are you a Title I coordinator feeling overwhelmed by the multifaceted responsibilities of your role? Join this workshop series designed to support both new and experienced Title I coordinators. Title I is crucial for providing additional academic support to students who are behind their grade level peers, and managing its implementation can be complex. This series will provide you with the information, learning opportunities, networking, and support you need to excel in your role with confidence and ease. Each session will have a featured focus aligned with the time of year and participant needs.

Outcomes

- Understand the multitude of Title I coordinator responsibilities in digestible pieces, including Title I law, Targeted and Schoolwide programming
- Explore best practices to enhance family engagement
- Review and analyze data specifically related to local programming and student achievement
- Share and learn effective strategies for program improvement from fellow coordinators
- Discuss and develop strategies for implementing effective schoolwide or targeted assistance programs

Who Should Attend?

Title I Coordinators or other school and district personnel with the responsibility of Title programming, and instruction (i.e. Title I Coordinator, Principal, Superintendent, lead Title I teacher, Reading Specialist, Rtl Coordinator)
