

Leadership in Literacy Institute

The CESA 9 Leadership in Literacy Institute fulfills the criteria ACT 20 training required for elementary principals and district reading specialists. Curriculum directors, special education directors, and school psychologists are encouraged to attend with their literacy team. The institute encompasses seven days of face-to-face training plus 4 additional free 30-minute virtual coaching check-in sessions. District teams will engage in:

- John Maxwell Methods of Leadership
- Evidence-aligned, systematic, structured literacy training designed specifically for school administrators and literacy leadership teams
- Activities to implement evidence-aligned systems and structures that elicit change
- Continuous improvement planning
- Support for implementation of ACT 20
- Presentations from Dr. Nell Thompson and Dr. Terrie Noland from the Transformative Reading Group

Audience: Administrators, Literacy Leaders and Reading Specialists
