

TRAUMA SENSITIVE SCHOOLS SPRING WEBINAR

EQUITY-CENTERED TRAUMA-INFORMED EDUCATION

How are trauma and inequity present in our schools, and with limited time and resources, how should teachers respond? In this webinar, Alex Shevrin Venet will introduce the framework for equity-centered trauma-informed education and its guiding principles that help educators help students, especially those impacted by trauma. We'll explore proactive priorities for transforming the school environment, as well as ways to tap into larger efforts for change.
