The Nathan and Esther Pelz Holocaust Education Resource Center (HERC) will be hosting a professional development to prepare educators to implement Act 30.

The interactive hands-on workshop will provide educators with tangible resources, lesson plans, and exercises they can use in their classroom.

In accordance with Act 30, requiring Holocaust and Genocide be taught in grades 5-12, the Nathan and Esther Pelz Holocaust Education Resource Center (HERC) is partnering with the Department of Public Instruction to provide educators with the tools they need. During this one-day session teachers will explore resources from leaders in Holocaust and Genocide Education and get hands on help as they incorporate this history into their curriculum.

Audience:

5-12 Social Studies and C & I Directors
