Facilitators

Katie Moder, RSN Director

Special Education policy and legal updates continually evolve. Stay prepared by attending the Special Education Director Legal Series, where you will receive updates from Mary Gerbig and Aleah Loll of Buelow Vetter Buikema Olson & Vliet, LLC. Updates will cover topics including, but not limited to, Title IX, shortened school days, school discipline, and FAPE. You will have the opportunity to provide input on session topics prior to the event and ask the team questions for just-in-time answers

Outcomes

- Stay current with legal updates
- Get specific questions related to your district's needs
- Collaborate with colleagues to update your policies and procedures to ensure you are compliant with the law
- Work creatively to follow the law and best serve students

Who Should Attend?

- Directors of Special Education or Pupil Services

Details

- $75 per person, per session or $225 per person for all 4 meetings
- Location: Virtual or at CESA 6 location
- Takes place immediately after RSN meeting and lunch

"The legal series discussions are one of my favorite learning opportunities. They provide a platform to ask questions about our daily challenges and, more importantly, to learn from other directors as they share their experiences. These sessions keep me informed about best practices, significantly reducing the need to contact legal counsel for advice."

-Tiffany Sponholz, Director of Student Services Beaver Dam Unified School District
