

Wisconsin Comprehensive School Counseling Program (WCSCP) NEXT STEPS

March 9, 2012

The Wisconsin Comprehensive School Counseling Program is a coordinated system of programs, activities, and learning experiences that prepare students for life after high school. The program provides equitable opportunities and access systematically for ALL students to develop socially, academically and in their career planning. This model is based on data driven decision making and is aligned to the Wisconsin Standards.

Discussion Topics:

- Activities and strategies used in districts relating to the WCSCP and Individual Learning Plan (ILP) - What is working and what isn't?
- Grade levels and time of year ILP Conferences are held?
- Facilitation of Individual Learning Plan Conferences for students with disabilities - How do we all work together?
- Transition - What is the role of transition in Individual Learning Plans
- Research findings on the transition needs of students with disabilities (by Maryjane Burdge)
- Questions and Answers

Facilitated by: Gary Spear, Independent Comprehensive School Counseling Program Consultant and CESA 6 Staff
