

2012 Parent Involvement Regional Summit

March 29, 2012

Moving Beyond Checklists and On To Action

This opportunity has been created for districts and elementary schools, especially those receiving Title I funds, to develop and plan strategies that sustain parent partnerships and to improve skills that join families and schools on a common path to student achievement.

Summit 1: This module will center on ESEA Parent Involvement expectations and discuss best practices of parent involvement. Participants will receive an overview of the tools and resources from Academic Development Institute that will assist each team in their preparation for Summit 2 in the fall of 2012.

Participants will:

- Be empowered to utilize information and resources in order to enhance Parent Involvement Initiatives
- Receive examples and strategies related to Best Practices for meaningful parent and family engagement

Target Audience: Elementary administrators, Title I coordinators, curriculum coordinators, parent coordinators, district Title I teams and elementary school Title I teams are encouraged to attend the summit.

Summit 1 is Thursday, March 29 at from 8:00–NOON. There is no charge for the Summit.

REGISTRATION ENDS AT THE CLOSE OF BUSINESS MARCH 26, 2012

E-mail Sue Werley (swerley@CESA6.org), CESA 6 Family Engagement Coordinator with your questions.

Summit 2: Offered in the fall of 2012, this session will resume work started in Summit 1. It will lead the team through the final stages and fine tuning of an action plan to be implemented during the 2012-2013 school year. Special attention will be given to enlisting and activating parents in the accomplishment of the action plan goals.

The Parent Involvement Regional Summits are the collaborative work of the Wisconsin Parent Teacher Association, Parents Plus of Wisconsin, CESA 6, and the Academic Development Institute.
