Crisis Prevention Training Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Trainings 2012-2013

Restraint and Seclusion in Public Schools Updates

Wisconsin recently passed a Seclusion and Restraint Law that takes effect September 1, 2012. The legislation requires all Wisconsin public school employees that use physical restraint to be trained in the safe use of restraint. In Wisconsin & CESA #4, the program that meets the requirements of the law is CPI's (Crisis Prevention Institute) Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Training. To accommodate district needs, we have added more options and dates for CPI Nonviolent Crisis Trainings in the 2012-2013 school year. For more information on this law go to:
