Planning for your School's Data Retreat

Facilitated by Brenda Jozwiak-Boldig Wittenberg Birnamwood School District

Goal: to prepare districts to utilize data to generate building level decisions and plan for a future of higher accountability for their districts.

School leaders will learn important procedural steps to implement data retreats in their buildings. Leaders will learn a detailed process and find, analyze and make decisions from their district and student level data.

The following graphic illustrates topics to be covered:

There will be team work time available during the day.

If you attended the May 17, 2012 Pre-Data Dig workshop, this day counts as day two, for 1 Grad Credit through Viterbo University, for $110 in a course called Hot Topics in Education. Only participants who attend both days are eligible for this credit option.
