

PALS for Kindergarten:

Phonological Awareness Literacy Screening

CESA #4

August 14, 2012— 9-11:30a.m. (overview), 12:30-3:00p.m. (modules)

August 29, 2012—10:00-12:30 (overview), 1:15-3:30 (modules)

September 17, 2012— 9-11:30a.m. (overview), 12:30-3:00p.m. (modules)

Details: The morning session is dedicated to an overview of PALS and discussion/networking time. Lunch is on your own. The afternoon session will be watching the DPI Module for certification. Participants may sign up for the morning, afternoon, or both sessions for the same cost.

Target Audience: Kindergarten Teachers, Special Education Teachers, Title I Teachers or Directors and Administrators.

Learn more about PALS connections to the Standards

- PALS subtests
- Preview PALS-K teacher sets
- Preview student materials

How does PALS fit into your current assessment plan?

- Learn how PALS meets the definition of a universal screener within a Response to Intervention (RtI) framework
- Preview (reusable) teacher materials
- Awareness of assessment date windows
- PALS Administration Training

Plus, learn about upcoming Professional Development opportunities regarding:

- Interpreting PALS reports
- Planning instruction
- Intervention planning

Registration and Pricing Information

PRICING INFORMATION: $50/person or $75/team of 3 from same school for same session. Principal attends free with a paid participant from his/her school for the same session.

To register go to: <http://login.myquickreg.com>

Please bring your PALS kit with you - kits are being mailed out August 1 to every kindergarten teacher in the state!

For questions, contact: Jen Kalis at jkalis@cesa4.k12.wi.us or 608-786-4810
Billie Finco at bfinco@cesa4.k12.wi.us or 608-786-4830
Sherri Torkelson at storkelson@cesa4.k12.wi.us or 608-786-4855

