

CALLING ALL TEACHERS OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS and MEDIA SPECIALISTS EVENT #129-13

- WHEN: August 23, 2012
- WHERE: CESA #2, 1221 Innovation Drive, Room 214, Whitewater, WI 53190
- TIME: 9:00 am – 2:30 pm
- STANDARDS: WTS 4
- COST: Free to the first 10 participants selected.* Once registration is submitted and confirmed, those selected for participation, (that represent the required age of educators the grant requires), will be emailed no later than August 1.

*Only 10 participant spots are available (5 Media Specialists and 5 English Language Arts teachers)

Workshop Information:

We would like to invite you to participate in the development of a statewide project that will provide teachers in the State of Wisconsin with a database of resources they can search to find examples of classroom activities to teach information technology literacy that is integrated with the English Language Arts. This workshop is free, plus you will earn a $210 stipend, plus mileage.

* Participants should bring a headset or ear buds for listening to audio resources.

Objectives:

Gather online resources and electronically upload to a Google site, and vet resources to assure they meet the level of quality expected by the DPI. The project will use the Wisconsin ITLS and CCSS Curriculum Crosswalk to develop the collection tool. The project will use Google forms for gathering data.

1. Train participating teachers to use the DPI curriculum crosswalk tool for Information Technology Literacy and Common Core English Language Arts, Resource Gathering process, and the Achieve Rubric. The activity will be a one-day face-to-face event. A Google site for accessing information and materials for the professional development activity will be made available.
2. The project will use the Achieve Rubric for evaluating the quality of the resource submissions.

Project participant requirements and obligations are:

Participate with a team of K-12 teachers responsible for ELA and/or media specialists in your CESA region to gather online resources.

1. Familiarity with the new ELA Common Core State Standards and/or Google apps for education is preferred
2. Attend the full workshop and submit 5 resources
3. Participants will be paid a stipend of $210 plus mileage and lunch
4. Participants have the option to integrate a new online resource into an existing lesson plan for 1 Viterbo Graduate Credit (paid for by the participant - $110)
