

Nonviolent Crisis Intervention (NVCi) One Day Initial Training

Tuesday, October 16, 2012 • 8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Description

Educators recognize the need for effective intervention with verbally disruptive individuals. They know that such intervention creates a more trusting and caring learning environment.

Anyone who may have to manage verbally aggressive individuals will benefit from the skills and techniques learned in this one day Nonviolent Crisis Intervention training. Verbal intervention and personal safety techniques will be addressed.

This training will discuss the Act 125 requirements regarding the appropriate use of seclusion and restraint but physical restraint techniques will not be covered in this training. This one day training covers Wisconsin Teacher Standards WTS5 and WPS6 and State Performance Plan Indicators IND4 and IND5.

Workshop Objectives

1. Identify and successfully intervene verbally with disruptive behaviors
2. Avoid negative engagement with individuals
3. Reduce tensions
4. Develop safe humanistic approaches to crisis intervention
5. Improve staff confidence and boost morale
6. Provide optimum care for individuals
7. Identify the new requirements regarding the use seclusion and restraint in Wisconsin

Who should attend?

Regular and special education professionals and paraprofessionals working with students with challenging behaviors, including teachers, principals, school counselors, social workers, psychologists and other educational specialists. (This training is not recommended for parents.)
