

Title III-Fall Networking Meeting

9/27/12

---

9:00

Welcome

Audrey Lesondak, DPI

DPI Updates

This orientation is geared toward district staff, such as guidance staff, lead teachers, curriculum specialists, or English language teachers who serve as first points of contact for new program support to classroom teachers and school teams new to working with English learners.

- 1) Introductions and Ice Breaker
- 2) Fundamentals for creating an inclusive environment for districts with few English learners
- 3) Considerations for Integrating classroom instruction practices centered around the common core, the WIDA English language development standards and Can Do descriptors
- 4) Some specific resources for getting started.
- 5) Q&A

10:30

CESA#3 Updates

Title III Professional Development activities and brochure discussion

CESA#3 Title III needs assessment to fine tune our PD offerings for 2012-13

Title III Consortium-Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) discussion

11:15

Edgewood College presents Connecting Teachers to English Language Learners (CTELL)

CTELL is a unique, online, scholarship supported program for any teacher in Wisconsin wishing to learn effective strategies for creating academic success for ELLs.

Edgewood will begin accepting applications for the 2013 Cohort of CTELL scholars on October 1, 2012. Be sure to stay to learn more about this wonderful opportunity!

Agenda setting for the next meeting

11:30

Lunch

12:00

Back to your district