Becoming Swift at SWIS

April 25, 2013

Presenter: Michelle Polzin

CESA 6 Coordinator of Responsive Educational Practices

Description

The School-Wide Information System (SWIS) is a web-based information system designed to be an efficient, reliable and confidential strategy for collecting, summarizing and using student discipline data. Research indicates that school personnel make more effective and efficient decisions when they have the "right data" in the "right form" at the "right time." SWIS is designed to provide school personnel with the information they need to be more successful decision-makers.

SWIS was developed at the University of Oregon in the mid 1990s, is upgraded annually, and runs on dedicated servers that meet all confidentiality and reliability criteria established by federal, state and university regulations. The information system can be used for:

- Internal decision making as schools improve their discipline practices.
- Support plan design with individual students and their families.
- Reporting to district, state and federal agencies about school outcomes.

SWIS provides information at three levels: (a) the whole school, (b) targeted groups of at-risk students, and (c) intensive individualized student interventions. The three SWIS applications: SWIS, CICO-SWIS and soon to be released ISIS-SWIS align with a Response to Intervention (RtI) framework, and provide the needed data for both universal screening and progress monitoring.

One month prior to April 25, 2013, contact Michelle Polzin (920-236-0521) for SWIS Readiness Checklist and Becoming Swift at SWIS license paperwork.
