

Math Excellence Network Meeting in K-5 Settings

Presented by: Jodean Grunow Ph.D.

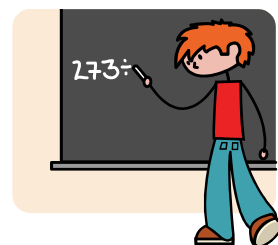

December 22, 2009
Glacier Canyon Lodge—Wisconsin Dells

Schoolwide or Targeted Mathematics Title I programs have the flexibility to offer services and resources for academic success for students. This networking meeting is designed to review optimum programming for students struggling in math.

During this workshop you will learn:

Study those programs most successful with struggling math students

- Continue the components of Title I Mathematics
Targeted and Schoolwide
- Continue to study the philosophical differences between targeted and schoolwide mathematics programs
- Do a brief self assessment
- Build on the assessment criteria for participation in a Title I mathematics program
- Jodean will do a book review on Mathematics
