

Social Relation Skills and Strategies for Students With High Functioning Autism and Asperger Syndrome

Kindergarten Through High School

March 19, 2013 • 8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Description:

This training will provide participants with an in-depth focus on the primary area of difficulty for people with autism spectrum disorder (ASD), social relation skills. Particular focus will be given to "social understanding", a significant feature of social development which is often absent or developmentally delayed in people with Asperger's syndrome/high functioning autism. Numerous tools and resources will be provided to address the various social thinking (learning) needs of people with ASD.

Teacher Standards: WTS2, WTS3, and State Performance Plan Indicator: IND5

Workshop Objectives:

- Define the various features and characteristics of social relation differences.
- Identify the educational implications, including suggestions for IEP writing, for social understanding differences for students with Asperger's syndrome/high functioning autism.
- Identify strategies to enhance development of social relation skills for people with Asperger's syndrome/high functioning autism

Who should attend?

Education and community professionals, parents and family members who support children with ASD. Special rates available for parents/family members. Contact Paula Starr for details.

Prerequisite: Prior training in understanding the features and characteristics of ASD.

For additional information contact: Paula Starr at pstarr@cesa6.org 920-236-0567

Graduate Credit: 1 graduate credit available through UW Oshkosh for an additional fee of $200.00. For each credit participant must attend two of the autism related courses and complete the assigned coursework.

Cancellation Policy: Any registration cancellation must be received 48 hours before the scheduled date for a refund to be issued. Because attendance at most sessions is limited, persons registering and not in attendance on the day of the session will be charged the full registration fee. CESA 6 reserves the right to cancel any session due to insufficient enrollment. Participants will be notified by email or phone if a cancellation occurs.
