Wednesday, October 24, 2012 - Friday, December 14, 2012
Online Graduate Course

Presenters:

Jackie Schoening, MSSW, CISW, SSW Safe and Healthy Schools Program Coordinator
Vicki Bayer, MeD, Neenah Schools Health Education Coordinator, SAP Coordinator

Description

This 100% on-line graduate level course will provide school personnel with practical strategies to apply restorative practices to their educational practice. This course will introduce to school personnel the concepts of restorative justice and restorative discipline; offer new tools that can reduce the need for school exclusion; and offer ways to enhance the school environment to prevent conflict and restore relationships after conflict arises.

Workshop Objectives

- Learn the concepts of Restorative Justice as they apply to the school setting.
- Provide ways to effectively address behavior and other complex school issues.
- How to create a supportive environment that can improve learning.
- How to improve safety by preventing future harm .
- Offer alternatives to suspension and expulsion.

Who should attend?

- K-12 regular and special educators, school leadership teams, and school building leaders
