

CESA 5 Project TILT Coaches Meeting

February 1, 2010

Lucy Gray

8:30 AM - 9:30 AM

Build It and They Will Come: Networked Learning for Professionals

- Goals for the day
- Review coaches' responsibilities for semester 2 (Sue and Jen)
- Overview of active and successful online networks for educators
- Overview of Project TILT community ning
- Overview of Diigo
 - CESA 5 bookmarking group

9:30 - 10:30

Brainstorming

- Discussion of features and needs
- Development of guidelines for facilitators and participants
- In learning groups, select a cool tool to brainstorm ideas on building online professional communities. Topics could include:
 - Weekly online PD opportunities
 - Community building activities and strategies
 - Utilization of outside resources,
 - What else?
- Choose a tool:
 - Mindmeister
 - Wallwisher
 - Google Docs
 - Posterous
- Share ideas with larger group
- Post documents to Project TILT community ning

10:30 - 12:00

Construction of learning communities within Project TILT community ning

- Focus on your learning group

- Be mindful of your learning strategies
 - Plan activities that support your chosen strategies
- After working on your learning group's area, think about features that are needed in the community at large.

12:00 - 12:45 Lunch

12:45 - 1:45

Mini-Keynote: What's New and Noteworthy in Educational Technology

- News from Educon conference
- K12 Horizon Report
- Google Apps for Education
- Q & A

1:45 - 3:00

Resources for Building and Sustaining Capacity

- Resources for supporting learning strategies
- Other sources of free online PD
- Using microblogging to expand PLN
- Using conferencing tools
- Virtual Speaker on social networking
 - Steve Hargadon will make a 15 minute appearance via Skype
- Final Survey