A 4-Day Workshop Series Highlighting Linda Dorn's Intervention Models

Writing Process Groups—March 15, 2013

Writing Process Groups are designed for first to fourth grade children who are struggling with the writing process in their writing workshop classrooms. The Intervention Specialist provides tailored instruction that focuses on the writing process, including drafting, revising, crafting, editing, and publishing processes.

Guided Reading Plus Groups—March 20, 2013

Guided Reading Plus Groups are for children in grades one to three who are reading at the early to transitional levels of reading and writing, but are lagging behind their classmates. The lesson includes four components: pre-planned word study activity, orientation to the new book, independent reading with teacher observations and follow-up teaching points, including discussion of the message. One lesson format begins with assessment: the teacher takes a running record on two children while the other students read easy or familiar texts. Then the focus shifts to the writing component, which includes four predictable parts: responding to guided reading text, composing individual messages, writing independently, and holding one-to-one writing conferences with the teacher.

Comprehension Focus Groups—April 10, 2013

Comprehension Focus Groups are for children who are reading at the transitional level and beyond in grades two to six, and who are having difficulty comprehending the wide range of text genres as they move up the grades. The interventions are designed to help students develop reading and writing knowledge for three major text types: literary, informational, and persuasive. The intervention includes two major components: 1) students participate in a comprehension focus unit around a specific text type or genre for a minimum of 3 weeks, and 2) students participate in the writing process by developing an original piece of writing within the genre of the focus unit. The lessons are 30 minutes daily

Comprehension Focus Groups in Content Areas—May 8, 2013

Comprehension Focus Groups in Content Area are designed for upper grade readers who are struggling with reading their content texts. The intervention utilizes the same format as the Comprehension Focus Group (described above); however, the students use their context textbooks, as well as other informational texts in the content unit of study. The intervention occurs during the content workshop in the classroom, or as a pullout intervention.

Registration Deadline: March 1, 2013

Cost: $150 per day; All four days—$550 includes continental breakfast and lunch;

Dates/Location: February 11; March 20; April 10; and May 8, 2013 (CESEA 6 Conference Center, Oshkosh)

Times: 8:30 am—3:00 pm

Presenter: Nicole Lehr, CESA 6 Literacy Center Coordinator: Prior to joining CESA she was a Leveled Literacy Interventionist, Reading First Coordinator, and a Title 1 Teacher for various grades K – 8 in Reading and Math. She has extensive background knowledge of Fountas and Pinnell's Literacy Continuum and their LLI intervention program. She is excited to share her knowledge of literacy through consulting with school districts.

Workshop Description: Through video-taped lessons and simulations, participants will work collaboratively to enhance the knowledge, skills and dispositions necessary for each of Linda Dorn's interventions designed for the intermediate student.
