

Intervention Strategies for Struggling Readers and Writers

Comprehension Focus Groups in Content Areas

May 8, 2013 • 8:30 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Presenter: Nicole Lehr
CESA 6 Literacy Center Coordinator

Description:

Comprehension Focus Groups in Content Area are designed for upper grade readers who are struggling with reading their content texts. The intervention utilizes the same format as the Comprehension Focus Group (described above); however, the students use their context textbooks, as well as other informational texts in the content unit of study. The intervention occurs during the content workshop in the classroom, or as a pullout intervention.

Workshop Objectives

- Differentiate classroom instruction to meet the needs of all learners, including children who struggle the most in literacy;
- Transform struggling students into successful readers and writers;
- Build small-group interventions based on the Comprehension for Intervention Model.

Who should attend: Grades 1-6 teaching staff
