Program Overview

The Fountas & Pinnell Leveled Literacy Intervention System (LLI), available from Heinemann, is a small-group, supplementary intervention program designed to help teachers provide powerful, daily, small-group instruction for the lowest achieving children in the early grades.

- ◆ LLI is designed to be used with small groups of young children who need intensive support to achieve grade-level competency.
- ◆ Participants include low-achieving children who are not receiving another supplementary intervention.
- ◆ English language learners can also benefit from LLI. Each LLI lesson provides specific suggestions for their support.

An Overview of the LLI System

February 4, 2013

Specifically designed for those wishing to explore LLI and learn the components, this workshop will focus significantly on the Fountas & Pinnell Benchmark Assessment System and the LLI program components. Participants will leave with a clear understanding of whether or not this popular intervention system is a good fit for the needs of their students.

Making Instructional Decisions within the LLI Framework

February 15, 2013

This workshop is for those who have been trained in and use LLI. It showcases additional ways to utilize the program, particularly ways to use assessments to examine results. Participants will examine the teacher talk of literacy instruction and explore the modifications that can be made for students who are not making appropriate progress with LLI.

LLI in the Intermediate Grades (Red Kit)

February 27, 2013

LLI's new Red Kit provides intervention options for intermediate children in grades 3-6. With significant structural differences, this kit includes age-appropriate activities, including novel studies, genre studies, and a focus on deeper comprehension demanded by the Common Core State Standards. Introduced in Fall, 2012, participants will dig into this intervention kit and leave prepared to use it with their students.
