About the Presenters:

Doug Fisher, Ph.D is a Professor of Language and Literacy Education in the Department of Teacher Education at San Diego State University. Doug is also the Dean of Faculty of Affairs and a classroom teacher at Health Sciences High and Middle College in San Diego, CA. He is a member of the California Reading Hall of Fame and is the recipient of several awards including the International Reading Association Celebrate Literacy Award, the Farmer award for excellence in writing from the National Council of Teachers of English, and the Christa McAuliffe award for excellence in teacher education. He has published numerous articles and books on school-wide approaches to improving student achievement, reading and literacy, differentiated instruction, assessment, and curriculum design. He is a board member of the Literacy Research Association (formerly the National Reading Conference) and co-editor of NCTE's middle level journal, Voices from the Middle. He is highly sought after for his dynamic and engaging professional development workshops.

There are four content teachers that Doug works with at the Charter school, they are:

- Heather Anderson—English
- Dina Burow—Math
- Maria Grant—Science
- Javier A. Vaca—History

These Content Area Teachers from Doug Fisher's charter high school, Health Sciences High and Middle College, will follow-up each general session topic with a breakout session.

CCSS—Disciplinary Literacy Summer Institute: with Doug Fisher: Quality Teaching for Today's Teens: Bringing Content Alive

Institute Overview

Doug Fisher will establish a practical understanding of instructional and assessment practices that elevate student achievement to the expectations defined in the CCSS.

There are four content teachers that Doug works with at the Charter school, they are:

- Heather Anderson—English
- Dina Burow—Math
- Maria Grant—Science
- Javier A. Vaca—History

These Content Area Teachers from Doug Fisher's charter high school, Health Sciences High and Middle College, will follow-up each general session topic with a breakout session.

Overview Design

Doug Fisher - General Sessions

The following will be addressed:

- Gradual Release of Responsibility
- Purpose Setting, Modeling and Guided Instruction in Content Area Classrooms
- Productive Group Work in Content Area Classrooms
- First 20 Days in all Middle School and High School Classrooms
- Embedded Vocabulary Instruction in the Content Area Classrooms
- Content Area Conversations
- Formative Assessment

Break-Out Sessions

Following each general session topic, leaders and content area teachers will engage in a more in-depth and role-specific exploration.

Leaders with Doug Fisher

Leaders will learn specific strategies and related logistics for supporting a sustainable implementation of each general session topic.

Content-Specific Break-Out Sessions

A master content-area teacher from Doug's charter school, Health Sciences High and Middle College, provides a content-specific lens for the classroom application of each general session topic. Sessions are segmented into the following :

- HSHMC classroom video example(s)
- HSHMC Student Clip – perceptions of content area discussions
- 1 week series of lesson plans
- Q & A

Planning Session

The institute closes with an afternoon of planning. As content area teachers join with their content-specific colleagues, to craft lessons they will be supported by the content-specific master teacher from Health Sciences High and Middle College. As leaders join together to design an implementation plan for their specific building, they will be supported by Doug Fisher and CESA 6 Literacy Center Coordinators.
