

Increasing the Academic Achievement of English Language Learners

Wednesday, March 6, 2013 • 9 am - 3 pm

Presenter: Jennifer Daniels

Description

Struggling to meet the needs of your English language learners? Looking for ways to have your ELLs fully participate in your classroom? Wondering how your ELLs will meet the academic rigor of the Common Core State Standards? This workshop will demonstrate how to utilize the WIDA Framework to increase the academic achievement of your ELLs. See the practical uses of the Can-Do Descriptors, the Performance Indicators, WIDA rubrics, and more!

Workshop Objectives

- Understand the English Language Proficiency Level of your English learners.
- Identify the relationships between the WIDA Framework components and their practical use in the classroom.
- Apply the WIDA Framework in instructional planning for increased academic achievement.
- Create Performance Indicators for content lessons.

Who should attend?

- K-12 mainstream teachers of ELLs, K-12 ESL teachers and content team teachers, ELL paraprofessionals and/or bilingual aides.

About the Trainer Jennifer Daniels is dedicated to helping school personnel learn the purpose, structure, and use of the WIDA Framework. Jen is a language learner herself, having lived in Israel for 15 years where she taught high school English in an immigrant youth village. She brings an educational background in leadership/curriculum plus experience in designing dynamic, practical professional development to her work as a WIDA-certified trainer.
