

The Next Generation Science Standards Are Coming!

CESA 8 Office

January 28, 2013

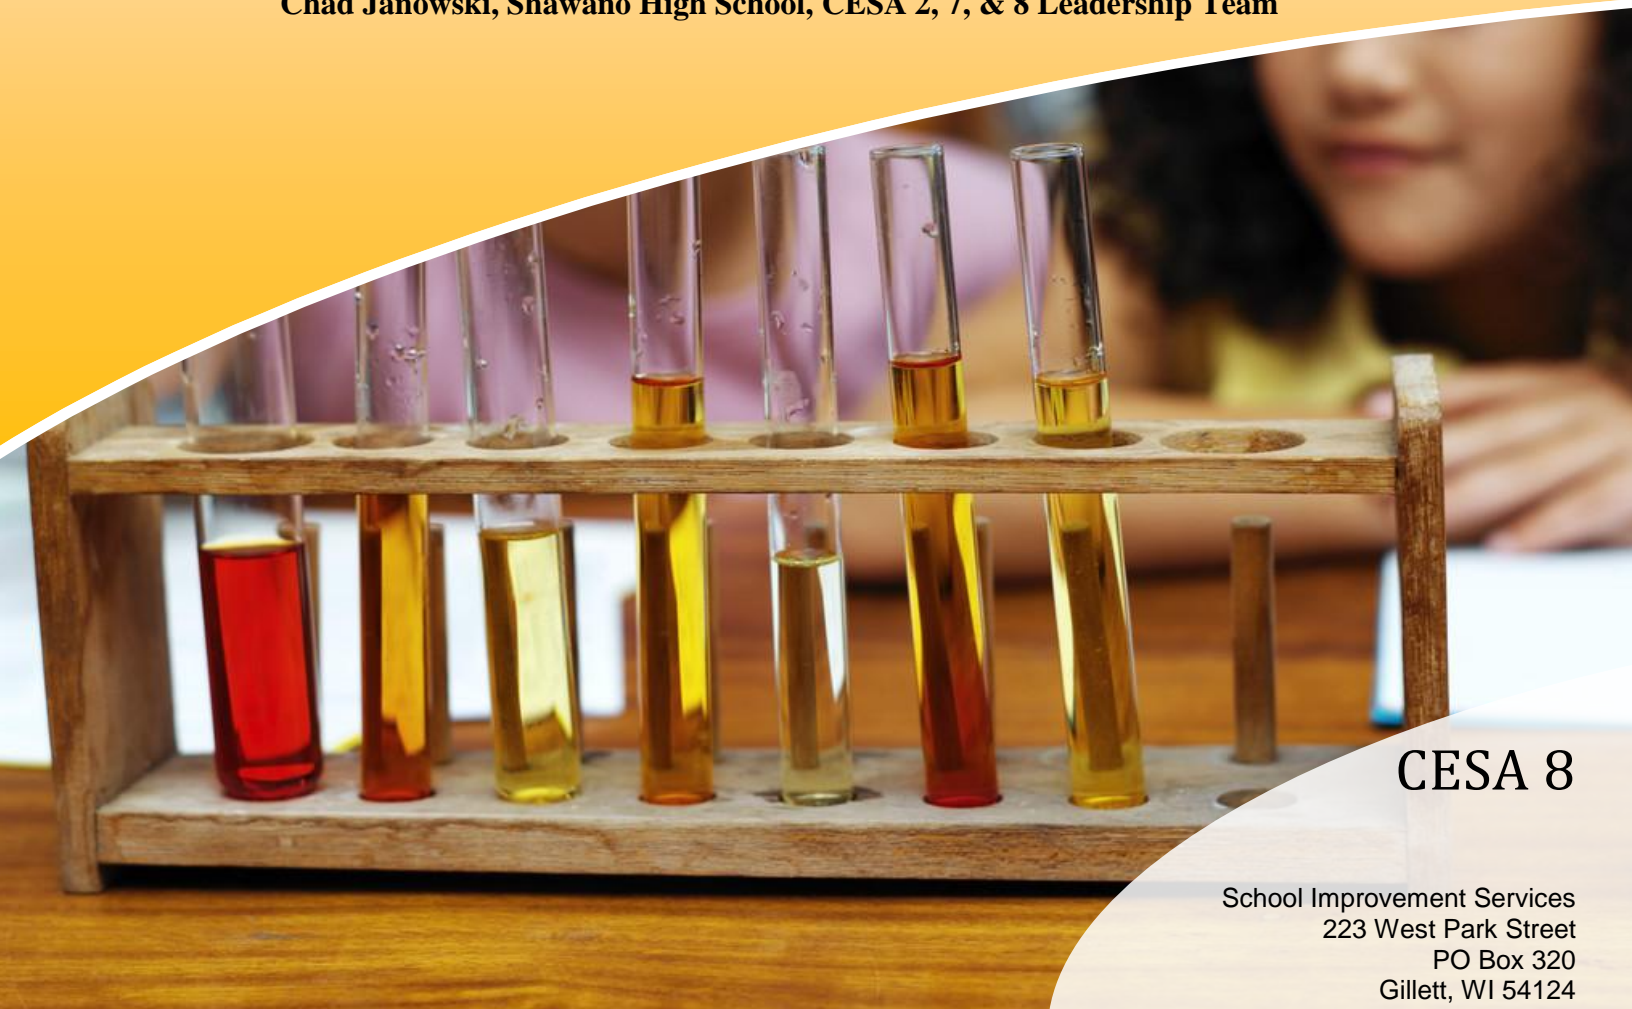

9:00 AM – 2:00 PM (check-in 8:30-9:00 AM)

The second draft of the national science standards designed by Achieve, Inc., was released on January 8, 2013. The standards document will be available for public comment for three weeks in January. Participants will dig into the new material in the standards, including all the new appendices grade level teams will then work on a roadmap to bridge the current Model Academic Standards to full K-12 implementation of the Next Generation Standards.

Audience: Administrators, Curriculum Directors, and K-12 Science Educators are encouraged to attend.

Cost: $20 per participant from CESA 8 School Districts

Presenter: Eric Larsen, Member of the DPI State Science Leadership Team
Chad Janowski, Shawano High School, CESA 2, 7, & 8 Leadership Team
