

Using PALS K Data to Drive Instruction

February 18, 2013
9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

PHONOLOGICAL AWARENESS LITERACY SCREENING

The PALS mid-year assessment window is January 7 – February 15. Learn how to analyze your current mid year data by attending this workshop. The PALS Using Data to Drive Instruction course will be viewed with time for discussion as a district team or discussion with other districts. You will learn how to form core instructional literacy groups as well as finding out important diagnostic information about your students in order to form intervention groups. The Electronic Lesson Plan provided in your Online PALS account will be reviewed as well as the PALS Quick Checks for progress monitoring.

Kindergarten teachers and administrators can attend as a team or administrators/reading specialists can attend to learn how to use this course with your district team.
