The Title I Network is a collaborative effort between DPI and Cooperative Educational Service Agencies (CESAs) that will provide increased technical assistance and professional development for districts and schools with Title I programs. Specifically the Title I Network will provide a base level of services to districts and schools receiving Title I dollars in the following areas:

- Title I applications
- Title I leadership
- Assistance and support for districts/schools identified for improvement
- Title I related professional development
- Resources and collaboration

CESA 6 Title I Network Events invite all educational leaders responsible for improving student learning.
