Registration Deadline:
April 17, 2013

The theme for this AODA Coordinators meeting will be suicide prevention. Participants will be introduced to the QPR (Question, Persuade, Refer) method to be used by adults in suicide prevention and intervention situations. Participants will also be encouraged to share what their school districts are doing for suicide prevention.

Participants will receive updates from the Wisconsin Safe and Healthy School Center and the Department of Public Instruction.

Participants will be given the opportunity to share "What's Going On In Your District for AODA Prevention?"

Learning Outcomes:

Participants will...

1. be able to use the QPR method for suicide prevention.
2. learn how other school districts are fulfilling the mandate to conduct training on suicide prevention for students and staff.
3. have the opportunity to network with AODA Coordinators from other school districts.
