

Example:
Anecdotal Observation Record

Date and Time: 4/27/96 1:15-2:15 p.m.

Observer: Mrs. Fisher

Site/Project: Trout River Clean-Up Project

| Behavior | Name Keyon | Name Sara | Name James | Name Maria |
|---|--|---|---|---|
| Cooperation | Works well with others. Shows respect for others. | Leader of group Respects other students. | Unwilling to work with others. Picks fights. | Gets along well with all students. Helps others without being asked. |
| Communication with others | Communicates effectively with peers. Gets ideas across clearly. | Excellent Communication skills! | Unwilling to communicate in a positive manner. Calls names. | Expresses ideas clearly and effectively. |
| Motivation | High level of motivation. Wants to do a good job! | Highly motivated, shows initiative. | Refuses to work without constant prompting. | Eager to try new activities. Energetic. |
| Ability to work independently | Works with little supervision. Sometimes needs guidance. | Works Independently. Asks for help when needed. | Requires constant supervision. | Good ability to follow directions to complete assigned tasks without supervision. |
| Use of time | Uses time efficiently with some supervision. | Uses time Efficiently | Wastes time. Does not complete activities. | Manages time Well. |
| Willingness To follow Directions | Slight problem with written directions, prefers oral directions. | No problem! Excellent. | Unwilling to follow written or oral directions. | Follows directions well. |