

This training is presented by the CESA 6 Literacy Center

Literacy Beginning for 4K

Learning about Letters, Sounds, and Words

January 14, 2014 • 9:00 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.
Question and Answer session from 2:30 - 3 p.m.

Presenter: Nicole Lehr
CESA 6 Literacy Center Coordinator

Description:

This session focuses on how letter learning is an essential part of the process of becoming literate, and it provides teachers with many practical ways to best support children in learning about sounds, letters, and words. It will assist in helping teachers to think about how children need to see letters in many different contexts and how children need specific instruction on learning how to look at letters.

Workshop Objectives

- Understand how to manage and design classrooms that support meaningful learning experiences through play with teachers as facilitators of self-regulated student learners
- Focus on assessment using informal and formal observations that provide evidence to support language development and early literacy concepts through intentional conversational interactions
- Explore the Continuum of Literacy Learning for the behaviors and understandings to notice, teach, and support in order to present playful and joyful yet appropriate, purposeful, and powerful experiences and opportunities to nurture young readers and writers, including learning about letters, sounds, and words

Who should attend: 4K teaching staff
