

CESA 6 Language & Culture Center: Global Education Network Meetings

2013 - 2014 School Year

Facilitator: Tere Masiarchin
CESA 6 Coordinator Language & Culture Center

Description

- Wishing you had the opportunity to connect with colleagues in the global education field?
- Wondering how other teachers and coordinators are handling the demands of world languages/global education?
- Looking for ways to promote global citizenship?

The Global Education Network is an opportunity for world language, global education teachers/coordinators, & cultural club advisors to connect with colleagues from around the state. The network meets four times during the year to share ideas and strategies for promoting and teaching global citizenship. Participants will have the opportunity to be actively engaged in discussing and exchanging ideas, best practices, and resources with one another. Topics will include, but are not limited to: world language/global educator effectiveness, culturally responsive practices, grants/funding sources, and advancement of global education/global citizenship.
