Disciplinary Literacy Workshop Series

October 9, 2013; January 28, March 26, 2014 • 9 a.m.—2:30 p.m.
2:30—3 p.m. Question and Answer session

Presenter: Kathy Schmitt
CESA 6 Literacy Center Coordinator

Description

Participants are invited for one or all sessions. The Common Core State Standards require all students to increase their amount of reading, writing and student-led discussions in content area classes. Each workshop day will equally devote attention instructional strategies and tools for increasing reading, writing, and student-led discussions in your content area. Additionally, participants will learn how to equip students with the pre-requisite skills required for individual accountability within small group work structures.

Workshop Objectives

- Text complexity: How do I accommodate a wide range of readers and writers?
- How do I primarily teach my students key concepts while also teaching them how to engage in close readings?
- What are easy reading and writing strategies to use with my students that don't consume time needed for acquiring content?
- What tools and structures support rigorous, high-level discussions?
- How do I achieve individual accountability during student-led work sessions?
- How do I get students to acquire concepts without using lecture-style or teacher-led discussions?

Who should attend: Grades 6-12 Content Area Teachers, Literacy Leaders, Curriculum Directors.
