

Mentor Foundation Training—Day 1

Tuesday, January 14, 2014 • 8:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Presenter: Eric Larsen
Coordinator of School Accountability

Workshop Description

Increase understanding of the needs of new educators and how to effectively provide support.

Workshop Objectives

- Increase your understanding of the new rules/licensure of Wisconsin Educators
- Learn how the Wisconsin Educator Standards form the basis for writing and implementing the new Wisconsin Professional Development Plans
- Learn to apply elements of trust and rapport with initial educators and colleagues
- Learn how to observe lessons and provide feedback to initial educators based on the use of Educator Guiding Questions

Educator Standards

- WES1—Teachers know the subjects they are teaching
- WES3—Teachers understand that children learn differently
- WES6—Teachers communicate well
- WES9—Teachers are able to evaluate themselves
- WES10—Teachers are connected with other teachers and the community

Who should attend?

Educators who are currently serving as mentors and/or those who wish to become mentors in the future.

Please register for Day 2 separately...February 13, 2014

Day 2 training will focus on completion of a Professional Development Plan.
