

PBIS Coach Networking

Dana Kuehl and Michelle Polzin

Regional PBIS TACs

Description:

A series of interactive half-day sessions which are vital to the implementation of PBIS in schools. Coaches will have opportunities to network with other coaches and return to their schools with renewed energy.

Outcomes:

Sessions are designed in response to state and local data collected through PBIS Assessment results and local needs assessments with focus on the critical elements of PBIS and coaching skills such as:

- Data-based decision-making, problem-solving, action-planning, effective team meetings, stakeholder support, funding, policy-making, leadership skills, systems, student outcomes, and facilitation skills.

Who Should Attend:

PBIS internal & External Coaches, Principals

What to Bring:

Attendees will be emailed one week prior to session
