Thurs/Fri July 22-23, 2010

1 day

Sat, Sept. 25, 2010

(8a.m. to 5 p.m. daily)

CESA 5, Portage

Do you love teaching but feel exhausted from disciplining and directing students on a daily basis? The “Daily 5” is a motivational framework to teach students a series of tasks that helps develop habits for literacy independence. Participants will put theory into practice as they develop expertise with this structure in a C.A.F.E. Classroom (Comprehension, Accuracy, Fluency and Expanded Vocabulary).

Limit 30 participants; must take for credit

2 Graduate Credits from Viterbo University—$285/credit

- Required Text: The Daily 5 and The CAFÉ Book by Gail Boushey and Joan Moser. Stenhouse Publishers.
- Students will need to bring two 1-2 inch binders for course contents and CAFÉ Assessment Notebook.

Cost is $30
